Stepping out of the Shallows

Jesus chooses his first disciples and he does it in style. He works a miracle that will directly impact Simon-Peter, James and John. The fishermen have been fishing all night but there isn't a fish to be caught. Jesus tells the fishermen where to fish and the next thing we know the nets are full to breaking. Peter has immediate misgivings. Surely he isn't worthy to be a friend of Jesus. Why on earth would Jesus want to associate with him, a sinner; a very normal person no different from any of us. But in hindsight we know that Jesus sees value in all of us, and just as he had a big job for Peter James and John, so he has a job for us all. Jesus made a great choice in Peter. It might seem to us that Peter was a bit of a loose cannon, but Peter was ultimately successful because he listened to Jesus, and he did as he was asked. Jesus directed Peter to the deeper water and that's where Peter went. The story of course isn't really about fish. Being directed to the deep waters is about having more faith. The deep water is about willingness to take risks. Moving from life's shallows takes discernment, and a change of heart. Perhaps many of us don't get anywhere in life because we are too comfortable in life's shallows. The shallows are safe and nothing much is demanded. We get out of life what we put in. What a tragedy to get to the end of life feeling that we've risked nothing and achieved nothing. Perhaps we don't risk anything because like Peter, we don't feel very able or very worthy. There are thousands of people on the planet cleverer than we are, braver than we are, more able than we are. What a good job Jesus doesn't choose people with top notch CV's. God chooses very ordinary people ... just like Peter... just like us! Peter nearly makes a mistake in today's reading. Jesus tells him where to catch fish and Peter is doubtful. He does what Jesus asks, but having fished all night his expectation is at an all time low. What a good job for the history of the church that Peter did as he was asked and had one more go. The message is clear. Discernment, courage, expectation and commitment are key. We have to work out what God wants of us, be prepared to take some risks, and nurture the expectation that we can and will make things happen.

PENITENTIAL ACT I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria.....

OPENING PRAYER

In faith and love we ask you, Father, to watch over your family gathered here. In your mercy and loving kindness, no thought of ours is left unguarded, no tear unheeded, no joy unnoticed and keep us safe in your care for all our hope is in you.
We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord.

FIRST READING (6:1-8)

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Thus says the Lord:

Share your bread with the Hungry and shelter the homeless poor. Clothe the man you see to be naked do not turn from your own kin. Then will your light shine like the dawn and your wound be quickly healed over. Your integrity will go before you and the glory of the Lord behind you. Cry, and the Lord will answer, call, and he will say, "I am here." If you do away with the clenched fist, the wicked word, if you give your bread to the hungry, and relief to the oppressed, your light will rise in the darkness.

This is the word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.
Response:

1. I thank you, Lord with all my heart, you have heard the words of my mouth. Before the angels I will bless you. I will adore before your holy temple. Response
2. I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you. On the day I called, you answered; you increased the strength of my soul. Response.
3. All earths kings shall thank you when they hear the words of your mouth. They shall sing of the Lord's ways: How great is the glory of the Lord!

Response

SECOND READING (15:1-11)

A reading from St Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, the gospel that you received; because the gospel will save you only if you keep believing exactly what I preached to you, believing anything else will not lead to anything. Well then, in the first place, I taught you what I had been taught myself, namely that Christ died for our sins, in accordance with the scriptures; that he was buried; and that he was raised to life on the third day, that he appeared first to Cephas and secondly to the Twelve. Next he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died; then he appeared to James, and then to all the apostles; and last of all he appeared to me too; it was as though I was born when no one expected it. I am the least of the apostles; in fact, since I persecuted the Church of God, I hardly deserve the name apostle; but by God's grace that is what I am, and the grace that he gave me has not been fruitless. On the contrary, I, or rather the grace of God that is with me, have worked harder than any of the others; but what matters is that I preach what they preach, and this is what you all believed.

The word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL (5:1-11)

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke.

Jesus was standing one day by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the crowd pressing round him listening to the word of God, when he caught sight of two boats close to the bank. The fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats—it was Simon's and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking he said to Simon, 'Put out into deep water and pay out your nets for a catch. 'Master, 'Simon replied, we worked hard all night long and caught nothing, but if you say so, I will pay out the nets. 'And when they had done this they netted such a huge number of fish that their nets began to tear, so they signalled to their companions in the other boats to come and help them; when these came, they filled the two boats to sinking point. When Simon Peter saw this he fell at the knees of Jesus saying, 'Leave me, Lord; I am a sinful man. 'For he and all his companions were completely overcome by the catch they had made; so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. But Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on it is people you will catch. 'Then, bringing their boats back to land, they left everything and followed him.
