The Real Miracle

The feeding of the five thousand no, not just a miraculous story about the multiplication of a couple of fishes and loaves. In the context of today's solemnity, today's gospel reading links the ordinary food that God provides at our regular meals to the extraordinary food we receive in Holy Communion. In this miracle Jesus is showing us that God's reign is about satisfying both human spiritual and physical need. The importance of the miracle is not so much about the multiplication of food, but the message that God can provide for all. This claim might raise a few third world eyebrows, but the truth remains; God has provided for all, it's left to us to make sure it is shared fairly around the world. Today's real miracle would be in the change of our materialistic attitudes. The real miracle would be a change that would enable us to eradicate poverty and hunger simply by organising a system of sharing. The scale of the problem the disciples faced on the day of the feeding of the five thousand must have seemed impossible, but the message that they should get on with the job of sharing and leave the rest to God, could be as miraculous today as it was then. Jesus was all about sharing. He gave his time, his love and finally his body and blood. When we receive Holy Communion in Mass our action is twofold. The Eucharist is a banquet for the multitudes in which we remember Jesus' sacrificial self-giving. More than this, we remember the promise that anyone who eats his bread and drinks his blood will share eternal life.

Community Notices

1st Anniversary Acknowledgement

In loving memory of Elizabeth Young nee Killally (R.I.P) whose first anniversary occurs on the 23rd June 2022. Her daughter Helen, son Liam and family would like to offer their heartfelt thanks to all those who offered their condolences, attended the wake and funeral Mass of their much loved mother. They extend their thanks to all who visited the home, telephoned, sent sympathy cards, flowers and gifts of food. A special word of thanks to those who cared for Elizabeth both at home and in hospital in her final days. The family wish to acknowledge Fr Liam and Fr Larry for their guidance support and the beautiful Requiem Mass they celebrated. A sincere thank you to Patrick Larkin Funeral directors for the compassionate, efficient and professional manner in which they carried out the funeral arrangements. Elizabeth, you left us beautiful memories,, your love is still our guide. Although we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Please Note: from Monday 20th June there will be no 10am Mass on day of funeral. The only exception will be on the First Fridays, if there is a Funeral scheduled 10am Mass will go ahead.

Priest: The Lord be with you
People: And with your Spirit

PENITENTIAL ACT I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria.....

OPENING PRAYER

O God, we thank you for this wonderful Sacrament. As we receive your Body at Communion, may our faith in your real presence among us be strengthened and be a source of hope and light in our lives. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

FIRST READING (14: 18-20)

A reading from the book of Genesis.

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: "Blessed by Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed by God Most High for handing over your enemies to you." And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old. Response:

1. The Lord's revelation to my Master: 'Sit on my right hand. I will put your foes beneath your feet'. Response.
2. The Lord will send from Zion your sceptre of power: rule in the midst of all your foes. Response.
3. A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains; from the womb before the day break I begot you. Response.

SECOND READING (11: 23-26)

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me. Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.'

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

"I am the living bread, which has come down from heaven, says the Lord, anyone who eats this bread will live forever".

Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL (9:11-17)

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here. He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Accept our gifts, Lord, we pray, and give to us the courage of Jesus, your Son, who has come among us to be your love of the poor and the deprived in our world. As this bread is food for all your people so may our hearts be open to spread your justice and love in our world. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Lord God, by sharing in the bread of life, we are brought into community with all your people. We pray that we can be men and women for others, open in our hearts and using our talents in building a world more equal in the sharing of its resources, more loving to all its people and more concerned with the dignity of all your people. We make this prayer in the name of Jesus the Lord.

OUR PRAYERS ARE ASKED FOR:

Pat Walsh, St Mary's Street, Edenderry

May he Rest in Peace.
Our Sympathy to his family

We would like to Congratulate Annie Forde & Johnny Sheridan
who have entered the Sacrament of Marriage recently. May they have a long and happy life together.
