“But First”

“Follow me!” says, Jesus, but if you think to bury your dead first, or go and bid farewell to your family you are not fit for the kingdom of God. Radical words! Is Jesus’ request for us to drop everything and follow him unrealistic, un-do-able... irresponsible even? Most of us want to be disciples, but at the same time we have children to bring up, elderly relatives to care for, jobs to do and bills to pay. Does Jesus want us to turn our back on all of this? When we look at today’s gospel reading in context we understand that Jesus isn’t so much painting a black and white ‘either or’ scenario so much as challenging our priorities. We all know what we should be doing, but we are dab hands at saying “Yes.... but first...” “Yes I will sponsor a child in the third world, but first I must pay off my credit card bills.” “Yes, I will go and visit that friend in hospital, but first I must finish off the housework.” “Yes, I will do a year’s voluntary work.... but first I must better my qualifications... get on the housing ladder wait until my family has grown up and left home.” The call to Christianity is a radical call with no room for lukewarm commitment. The call to Christianity is urgent. When Jesus was journeying to Jerusalem his call for discipleship demanded an immediate response. Jesus was on his way to meet suffering and death and he couldn’t wait around for his would-be disciples to go through the lengthy funeral rites or farewell parties of the day. The call to discipleship is no less urgent today as it was then. War, abuse and injustice won’t go away by themselves. Malnutrition and crippling poverty can’t be put on hold until our personal circumstances are better. Being a good disciple means seizing daily opportunities, because today’s opportunities will never come round again.

Reminder Cake Sale: in the Parish Centre after the 3 Masses this weekend 25th/26th June. Proceeds go towards helping a local person travel to Lourdes. Cakes, jams, tarts, etc; can be brought to the Parish Centre on Saturday from 4pm & before Masses on Sunday. All donations welcome. Raffle draw will take place after 11:30am Mass Sunday.

The background of the poster features a grayscale image of a crowd of people at a festival. Overlaid on this is a black silhouette of a person's head in profile, facing right. From the top of the head, a spray of black musical notes and stems erupts. A musical staff with several notes is drawn across the middle of the image, passing behind the word 'FESTIVAL'.

Priest: The Lord be with you
People: And with your Spirit

PENITENTIAL ACT I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria.....

OPENING PRAYER

O God, who through the grace of adoption chose us to be children of light, grant, we pray, that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

FIRST READING (19:16.19-21)

A reading from the book of the Kings.

The Lord said to Elijah: Go, you are to anoint Elisha, as prophet to succeed you. Leaving there, he came on Elisha as he was ploughing behind twelve yoke of oxen, he himself being with the twelfth. Elijah passed near to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left his oxen and ran after Elijah. 'Let me kiss my father and mother, then I will follow you,' he said. Elijah answered, 'Go back; for have I done anything to you?' Elisha turned away, took the pair of oxen and slaughtered them. He used the plough for cooking the oxen, then gave to his men, who ate. He then rose, and followed Elijah and became his servant.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.

Response:

1. *Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.
I say to the Lord: 'You are my God.'
O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;
it is you yourself who are my prize. Response*
2. *I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel,
who even at night directs my heart.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. Response*
3. *You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand happiness for ever. Response*

SECOND READING (5:1.13-18)

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Galatians.

When Christ freed us, he meant us to remain free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery. My brothers, and sisters you were called, as you know, to liberty; but be careful, or this liberty will provide an opening for self-indulgence. Serve one another, rather, in works of love, since the whole of the Law is summarised in a single command: Love your neighbour as yourself. If you go snapping at each other and tearing each other to pieces, you had better watch or you will destroy the whole community. Let me put it like this: if you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Speak, Lord, your servant is listening: you have the message of eternal life.

Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL (9:51-62)

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your Spirit.

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke.

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, he resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village. As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go'. Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head'. Another to whom he said, 'Follow me', replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first'. But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury their dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God'. Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say good-bye to my people at home'. Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God'.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

We give to you Lord, these small gifts of bread and wine. They are our invitation to you to be part of our family life, for they are signs of your love for us. May we who offer these gifts offer also our service to you. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

As we go from this place, Lord God, where we have celebrated the love of Jesus your Son, we ask you to bless us and all those we love. May all we do and say be words and deeds which Jesus would see as his. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

We would like to Congratulate Afric O' Connor & Gregory Murray who have entered the Sacrament of Marriage recently. May they have a long and happy life together.
