God's Apprentice

Today's is a strange and difficult parable. A dishonest business man is caught squandering and is faced with dismissal. The business man sees a bleak future ahead of him and without a minute to waste sets about making some shrewd though dodgy deals to secure his future. We sit back waiting for his come-uppance but it doesn't happen! In fact the business man is applauded for his shrewdness. This rogue business man shares much in common with our twenty first century business men and women. The rogue business man is talented, skilled ambitious and plausible or he wouldn't have been taken on as a manager in the first place. The manager has the ability to look into the future, decide what he wants from life and make the necessary plans. More importantly he works as though his life depends upon it without a moment to waste. This man could've achieved great things but for one thing. Money! Money has the power to corrupt each and every one of us and the man in today's story was well and truly corrupt. Nevertheless Jesus tells us that the 'children of the light' can learn from the 'children of the world'. What if we could get up at six every morning, knock back a quick cup of coffee and set about God's work. What if we were to work tirelessly solving the world's problems barely stopping for lunch and getting home late every night. What if we were to use our skills and talents to persuade others to invest in our cause? What if we were to work with one eye on our ultimate destination keen to secure our place in heaven? The world would certainly be a very different place. To achieve it we would each need to make God our master and not money. The real difficulty in this story is not in understanding Jesus' unexpected choice of subject, but in adhering to his mandate. "No slave can serve two masters..... You cannot serve God and wealth."

Autumn Collection

The Autumn Collection for the support of the priests of the Parish takes place this weekend 17th/18th September. For those of you who don't have boxes, there are envelopes in the Church porches. A sincere thank you to all who support the priests. It is greatly appreciated

Prayer Corner

Fill in the Blanks with the correct word

Jesus told his disciples: "There was a _____ man whose _____ was accused of wasting his possessions. So he called him in and asked him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.'

"Whoever can be _____ with very _____ can also be trusted with much, and whoever is _____ with very little will also be dishonest with _____. So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own?"

"No _____ can serve two _____. Either he will _____ the one and _____ the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both _____ and _____."

Luke 16:1-2, 10-13 (NIV)

People: And with your Spirit

PENITENTIAL ACT I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

OPENING PRAYER

O God, who founded all the commands of your sacred Law upon love of you and of our neighbour, grant that, by keeping your precepts we may merit to attain eternal life. Through our Lord Jesus, Christ, your Son.

FIRST READING (8:4-7)

A reading from the prophet Amos.

Listen to this, you who trample on the needy and try to suppress the poor people of the country, you who say, When will New Moon be over so that we can sell our corn, and Sabbath, so that we can market our wheat? Then by lowering the bushel, raising the shekel, by swindling and tampering with the scales, we can buy up the poor for money, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and get a price even for the sweeping of the wheat. The Lord swears it by the pride of Jacob, "Never will I forget a single thing you have done".

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Praise the Lord, who raises the poor. Response:

1. Praise, O servant of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord! May the name of the Lord be blessed both now and for evermore.
Response.
2. High above all nations is the Lord, above the heavens his glory. Who is like the Lord, our God, who has risen on high to his throne yet stoops from the heights to look down, to look down upon heaven and earth. Response.
3. From the dust he lifts up the lowly, from the dung heap he raises the poor to set him in the company of princes, yes, with the princes of his people. Response.

SECOND READING (2:1-8)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to Timothy.

My advice is that first of all, there should be prayers offered for everyone - petitions, intercessions and thanksgiving - and especially for kings and others in authority, so that we may be able to live religious and reverent lives in peace and quiet. To do this is right, and will please God our saviour: he wants everyone to be saved, and reach full knowledge of the truth. For there is only one God, and there is only one mediator between God and mankind, himself a man, Christ Jesus, who sacrificed himself, as a ransom for them all. He is the evidence of this, sent at the appointed time, and I have been named a herald, and apostle of it and - I am telling the truth and no lie - a teacher of the faith and the truth to the pagans. In every place, then, I want everyone to lift their hands up reverently in prayer, with no anger or argument.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Open our heart, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son.

Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL (16:1-13)

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke.

Jesus said to his disciples, "The man who can be trusted in little things can be trusted in great; the man who is dishonest in little things can be dishonest in great. If then you cannot be trusted with money, that tainted thing, who will trust you with genuine riches? And if you can not be trusted with what is not yours, who will give you what is your very own? No servant can be the slave of two masters: he will either hate the first and love the second, or treat the first with respect and the second with scorn, You cannot be the slave both God and of money".

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Lord, may these gifts which we now offer to show our belief and our love be pleasing to you. May they become for us the eucharist of Jesus Christ your Son, who is Lord for ever and ever.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Lord, help us with your kindness. Make us strong through the eucharist. May we put into action the saving mystery we celebrate. We ask this in the name

Harvest Mass– Sat 1st & Sun 2nd Oct

Thanksgiving for the Harvest, and for all the blessings we have received during the year. We welcome fruit, vegetables, and all the produce of our summer and our harvest. These can be left into the Church on Saturday morning between 10am to 12 noon

Blessing of Pets: All parishioners are invited to bring animals to the church grounds for a blessing ceremony on Sunday 2nd October @ 3pm. Please do not park in the Church grounds as we need it free for the animals, you can park in the Cemetery or the Parish centre. Can you please pick up after your pets, bags and bins will be provided.
