God At Work

Normality is great if you want to wake up every morning knowing exactly what to expect. Ordinarity is wonderful if you want to live every day exactly the same as the last. But if you want to live an extraordinary life, the lesson today is to look and see where God has been at work. Jesus meets ten lepers on his way to Jerusalem and offers them a cure. The nine Jewish lepers go to see the priest who will conduct certain rituals before giving them a clean bill of health. Presumably the ex-lepers will then rush back to their old way of life eager to get back to normality. For the tenth leper, going to see the priest is not an option. In any case, he has no plans to rush back to normality. It is the Samaritan that recognises that God has touched his life and he will never be the same again. He has not only been healed but transformed. How could he go back to an ordinary life having witnessed the 'extraordinary'; and so he races back to Jesus to thank him. This is not a lesson in social etiquette. The Samaritan isn't just saying "Thank you", he has been transformed by gratitude. Gratitude is central to our relationship with Jesus, no matter who we are or what our creed. The Samaritan went back to Jesus because his gratitude was compelling him to live in God's love. We might not ever experience circumstances as dreadful as that of the ten lepers, but we still have plenty to be grateful for. God's work is everywhere, and we need to remember to thank God for it all the time. It isn't that Jesus wants us to walk around being permanently grateful, but he does want gratitude to point us in better directions. Normality is great if you want to wake up every morning knowing exactly what to expect. Ordinarity is wonderful if you want to live every day exactly the same as the last. But if you want to experience the joy and appreciation that the tenth leper experienced, start waking up each morning knowing that God has got a plan.

Please Note: Church will close each evening (except on Saturdays) @ 6pm from Monday 10th October until further notice !!!

Our display of crops for our Harvest Mass last weekend

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

PENITENTIAL ACT I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you are alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

OPENING PRAYER

Let us pray.. Almighty God, every good thing comes from you. Fill our hearts with love for you, increase our faith, and by your constant care protect the good you have given us. We ask this through Lord Jesus Christ, your Son.

FIRST READING (5:14-17)

A reading from the second book of Kings.

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child. Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know,' he said 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is 'No, allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any God except the Lord.'

The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

The Lord has shown his salvation to the nations.
Response:

1. Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders. His right hand and his holy arm have brought Salvation. Response
2. The Lord has made known his salvation; has shown his justice to the nations. He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel. Response
3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the Lord all the earth, ring out your joy. Response

SECOND READING (2:8-13)

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy.

Remember the Good News that I carry, 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David' it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal-but they cannot chain up God's news, So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it. Here is a saying that you can rely on: If we have died with him, then we shall live with him. If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life: you have the message of eternal life.

Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL (17:11-19)

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us'. When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests'. Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you'.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Lord, may these gifts which we now offer to show our belief and our love be pleasing to you. May they become for us the eucharist of Jesus Christ your Son, who is Lord for ever and ever.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Lord, may this Eucharist help us to remain faithful. May it teach us the way to eternal life. Grant this through Christ our Lord.

The Legion of Mary: are looking for new members. The meeting is on Tuesdays @ 7pm in the Parish Centre. Phone 086 8891070 for more information.

Divine Mercy Prayers: will take place on Sunday the 9th October at 2:45pm. Specific intention for October: For mercy and peace for the whole world, especially for those nations suffering from persecution, lack of freedom, freedom to profess their faith and respect for human rights.

Confessions in the Church each Saturday evening from 6pm to 7pm.
