Looking for a Sign?

The people in today's gospel story are proud of their glittering temple. Jesus takes the opportunity to remind them that what we build here on earth will one day be nothing more than rubble. Concerned, the people ask Jesus when this will be and whether they can expect a sign. Just imagine if Jesus had replied with something like '...When three wild geese fly across a full moon on the thirteenth day of the seventh month ....' Just imagine if we could forecast the end of the world by so specific a sign. Future generations would spend each fearful July watching out for full moons and geese flying in threes. Of course Jesus gives no such answer either for the destruction of the temple, or for the end of the world. It doesn't matter what our future holds or what catastrophes lay ahead. It doesn't matter exactly when they will happen or how we will know about it. What matters most is how well we are prepared, and how well our faith will stand up to difficulty and hardship. Today's gospel is not about some far off distant series of disasters, but about how we live our lives in the here and now. Jesus warns us that our faith will have to withstand great struggle. He tells of war, natural disaster, imprisonment and betrayal to name just a few. In our own experience perhaps our faith has to survive poverty, relationship difficulties, illness, or the death of a loved one. Today's gospel challenges us to strengthen our faith to withstand suffering both personal and global. Jesus tells us, that protected by an armour-plated faith, we need not fear of anything that lies ahead.

Priest: The Lord be with you
People: And with your Spirit

PENITENTIAL ACT I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING (3:19-20)

A reading from the prophet Malachi.

The day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and the evil-doers will be like stubble. The day that is coming is going to burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, leaving them neither root nor stalk. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays.

The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

The Lord comes to rule the peoples with fairness.
Response.

1. Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp with the sound of music. With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord. Response
2. Let the sea and all within it, thunder; the world, and all its peoples. Let the rivers clap their hands and the hills ring out their joy at the presence of the Lord. Response
3. For the Lord comes, he comes to rule the earth. He will rule the world with justice and the peoples with fairness. Response

SECOND READING (3:7-12)

A reading from the second letter to the Thessalonians.

You know how you are supposed to imitate us: now we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we ever have our meals at anyone's table without paying for them; no, we worked night and day, slaving and straining, so as not to be a burden on any of you. This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves an example for you to follow. We gave you a rule when we were with you; not to let anyone have any food if he refused to do any work. Now we hear that there are some of you who are living in idleness, doing no work themselves but interfering with everyone else's. In the Lord Jesus Christ, we order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to stand with confidence before the Son of Man. Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL (21:5-19)

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke.

When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings Jesus said, "All these things you are staring at now - the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another: everything will be destroyed". 'And they put to him this question: "Master," they said "when will this happen and what sign will there be that this is about to take place"? "Take care not to be deceived", he said, "because many will come using my name and saying, 'I am he' and, 'The time is near at hand, Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not so soon". Then he said to them, "Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven. But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name - and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind: you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends: and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives".

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
